- C. Scheduling 101
- D. Since our inception the league rules and guidelines have been established by the coaches. Any recommendations are evaluated, discussed and implemented/changed where viable. The proper mix of travel and competition has always been a major topic and the format established and tweaked by the coaches throughout the years, has allowed us to determine the best structure for the teams in each age group by following the guidelines below
League Structure Guideline Multi-tiered Divisions of Competition (Community, Advanced, Open & Tournament)
 - A) Strength then Geography & Similarity (Divisions within divisions based on number of teams)
 - B) Geography
 - C) Number of games that similar minded teams want to play
 - D) Scheduling to accommodate tournament & practice schedule along with the team's non-baseball activities
 - E) Competition vs Geography b) Scrimmage vs Games c) Drive vs Backyard d) Tournament Heavy
